STORMS HIT CITIES IN TWO STATES

To Jail for Grand Larceny

SIOUX CITY, Iowa, Sept. 13—(UPI)—Ten persons were known to be dead in two distinct tornadoes that late today hit northeastern Nebraska and the southeastern portion of South Dakota.

Six persons are reported dead at Nebraska and four in Dakota, according to reports reaching here tonight.

Those reported dead were a school teacher, two school children and one man near Winnebago and a young school girl and six months old baby. One woman was killed near Davis, S. D., and an unidentified man, child and a garage owner.

The storm struck the section at 4:12 p. m. today. Practically all communication lines were down and reports were slow in coming from the storm section.

One of the storms struck Winnebago, Watertown, Romeo and Dakota City, Nebraska, then went into Northwestern Iowa, hitting Ireton. Little damage was reported done near Ireton.

DEM. NOMINEE LOCAL HI WILL IS ASSAILED GET STATE AID

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13—(UPI)

A statement charging Senator Robinson, democratic vice-presidential nominee with "wilful distortion of facts" in connection with Hoover's attitude on inflation, of the price of farm products during the armistice was issued yesterday by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Will Cooper.

Work charged Robinson "quoted single sentences from correspondence of Mr. Hoover over the past ten years, deliberately removing them from the contents and distorting their entire meaning." He said Robinson did this in his Charlotte, N. C., speech Wednesday night and in his acceptance speech.

"If Senator Robinson will publish this entire correspondence," Work said, "it will show that he is flagrantly misleading his hearers. The same tactics are being used by other democratic speakers such as Tom Reed of Missouri. What we want is an honest presentation of the issue."

AMER AMANULLAH, Afghanistan monarch, orders a series of reforms in his country after a tour of Europe. Universal manhood suffrage has been introduced and an elective legislative body created. Titles and ranks are eliminated. Modernization of the army has been started. Child marriages have been abolished. Afghanistan steps boldly into the ranks of civilized nations. All due to a brief trip by a wise monarch to progressive countries. Other people have traveled—but Amer Amannullah did more—he SAW, he STUDIED; he ACTED. Amanullah the Wise, they will call him in years to come.

THE BUILDING OF SKYSCRAPERS in Rio de Janeiro has been checked because a French artist employed by the city declares they are inartistic. The worthy gentleman should take a trip to New York and study the tall buildings. He should approach the city from the Hudson river side and drink in the beauty of the rugged skyline on the western shore. Or go to the roof of the Woolworth building and look out upon upper and lower Broadway. He might study the light and shadow effects.

Pilot Is First To Land in L.A. But Loses Race

MINES FIELD, Los Angeles, Sept. 13—(UPI)—Art Goebel, who was the first transcontinental racer to land in Los Angeles today, stopped his plane at Prescott, Ariz., and was disqualified, it was announced today after the aviator had been hailed as winner of the event.

The greatest crowd to attend the air races and circus gathered at the field early today to witness termination of the race. It was nearly two hours after Goebel landed that the audience was informed of his failure.

Hope began to wane rapidly today that any of the seven planes that took off would complete the flight.

George Haldemann and Jack Iseman alone were unreported, but it was feared they had been forced down in some isolated spot where rapid communication was impossible.

Many of the spectators had been at the field since 3:30 a. m., the earliest time any of the flyers possibly could have arrived and as the hours passed the throng grew impatient.

The famous three seahawks of the navy, favorites with all who have witnessed the show, were in the air entertaining with daring.

200 Periled In Explosion

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Sept. 15—(UPI)—Fire followed by an explosion which tore a hole in the bottom of the 7,300 ton steamer Aconcagua, of the South American Steamship Line, imperiled the lives of 200 seamen and dockworkers aboard the vessel at the foot of Kane street late today.

The blaze, supposedly caused by spontaneous combustion, broke out in the hold where 12 men were at work unloading a cargo of copper, cotton and nitrates from Santiago, Chile. They escaped before the explosion of the nitrates.

EL SEGUNDO S. O. PLANT IS WRECKED

EL SEGUNDO, Sept. 13—(UPI)
Three men were killed and seven badly injured, one probably fatally, when a gasoline still at the Standard Oil company refinery exploded late today.

The roar of the blast, which was reported felt as far as seven miles away, brought hundreds of relatives of employees to the plant's gates.

The gates were barred and inability of the relatives to learn details of the tragedy resulted in a over gate.

Frantic mothers, wives and parents sought to break through the gates but could not gain entrance. Company officials tonight were reported investigating the accident.

The dead were reported as Frank Holden, Charles Lambert and Thomas Davis.

The injured:
Edison Keller, C. O. Hesser, Harry Booth, Carl Rohfuss and William Lane, all of El Segundo; J. T. Edwards and Robert McClelland of Redondo Beach.

The three dead men were residents of this city and Lambsdale.

AMERICAN VERSUS FOREIGN WAGES

How much better off American workers are than those doing similar work in Europe strikingly is shown in a statement just issued by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor. This gives a comparison of wages here and abroad and reveals the fact that workers in the United States get anywhere from three to ten times as much as do those performing corresponding work in various European countries.

The benefits which the American workman enjoys therefore as a result of the republican policy on tariff protection for American workingmen against foreign labor are manifested to a very large degree in his pay envelope. These benefits extend to the home, the wife and children of the worker in this country, permitting him to provide not only the ample necessities of life but also many of the things which his fellow workers in Europe do not enjoy.

These statistics show, further, that wages in the United States today are higher than they were a few years ago and that the worker can buy 32 percent more for his money than he could in the pre-war year 1913. The figures show that since 1922 there has been a steady increase in wages per hour until in 1926 they were 129 percent higher than in 1913. This yearly comparison reveals that in 1926 the workers in this country could buy 30.7 percent more for his hour of work than he could in 1913; and that, while the exact statistics are not yet available, there has been a further drop between 1926 and 1927 of about one and one-half percent in the cost of living.

Thanks to a republican tariff which keeps the cheap products of European labor from any competition with those of the United States, the American worker receives much more for his labor than does the man in Europe doing the same kind of work and is enabled to provide for himself and his family the comforts and the pleasures which a progressing civilization is adding daily to the benefit of mankind.

While the democrats are trying at present to make it appear they also are for some kind of a tariff, all the utterances of that party's leaders show that if the democrats had their way they would bring about a tariff policy which would prove ruinous to the industry and workers of the United States.

Generally speaking, all the man in the street cares about the tariff is that under a Republican tariff he has a job and under a Democratic tariff, he hasn't a job.

AND THE WORST IS YET TO COMEJulie Says—*BEAUTY

Dear Miss Lane,
I have unusually oily hair and it is almost impossible for me to keep it looking well cared for. I have had treatments in beauty shops but they don't seem to do much good and I thought perhaps you might be able to suggest some way of drying up the oil.—N. N.

It is unwise to wash your hair too often, although the temptation to do so is great when your hair is so oily. Try to wait two weeks between shampoos and in the meantime give yourself a dry shampoo with powdered orris root or with witch hazel. The orris root should be shaken into the hair and carefully brushed out so as to leave no trace. This is sometimes difficult to do and, as a result, I usually advise the witch hazel. Rub it into the scalp with a piece of cotton and you will be surprised at how much dirt and grease you will remove this way.

A tonic which helps to dry up the surplus oil can be made by adding 40 grains of resorcin to an ounce and a half of water, an ounce and a half of alcohol, and an ounce and a half of witch hazel.

Dear Miss Lane,
I have dry skin and my face powder seems to show up every pore. I am following your directions for the care of dry skin, but in the meantime I wish I knew some kind of powder that wouldn't look so hideous.

READER

You should use a cream powder base to soften the skin so that it will hold the powder evenly until you have gotten your skin in better condition.

OVER THE PHONE

A storekeeper received a call from a solicitor. Following are the greetings which took place.

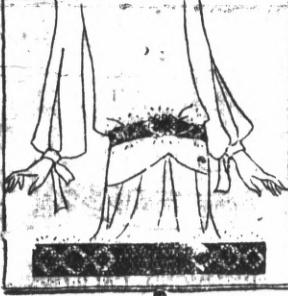

Solicitor—Good morning. Are you Mr. Smith?

Stockbroker—Yes.

"I'm Clutterback, Spikins, Son, & Rovensworth."

"Oh! Good morning, good morning, good morning!"

COLORFUL as well as serviceable is this frock seen among the many at one of the fall openings. In both crepe de chine and jersey. The latter, I think holds the main attraction. The sleeves were very interesting, cut and the frock, though a single piece, gave the impression of two. Colorful peasant embroidery decorated the sleeves and the bottom of the jumper. The dress was tailored in effect, pleats featuring one side of the skirt to give it freedom of movement. In green with embroidery of red, yellow, black, a bit of orange and green. A lovely frock for daytime and for the college girl.

ROSE CUYABA CHILDREN OF BRAZIL

It was raining, raining hard in Matto Grosso. Mother, father, Maruca and Tono had ridden to the city of Cuyaba (koo-yah-ba). They did not know it was going to rain. But the rain did not bother that family. What do you think father said? He said, "Run! Look in the sand of the street, my Maruca and Tono. See if the rain has washed gold down from the hills!"

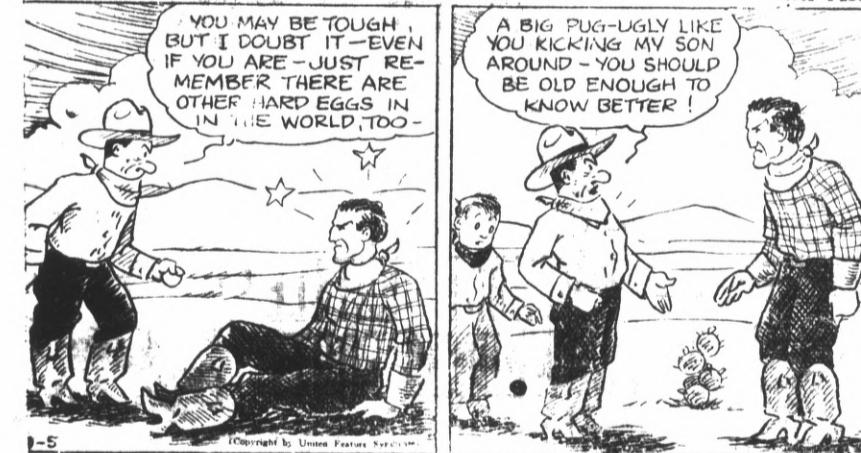

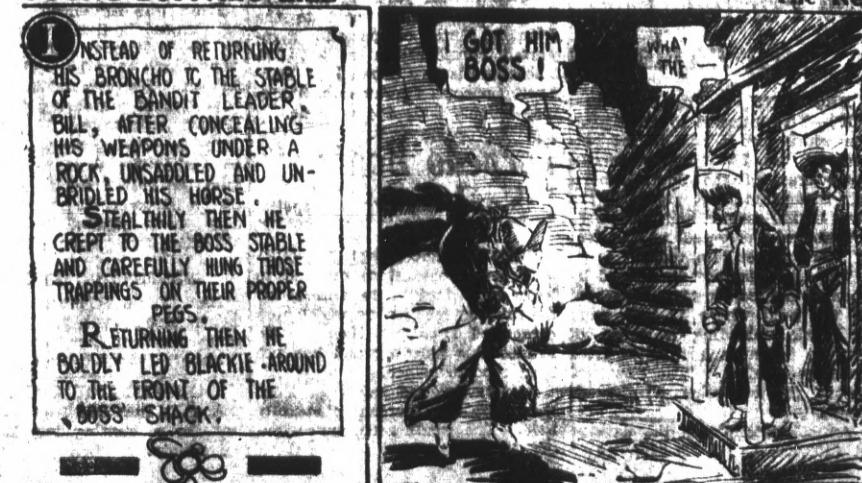

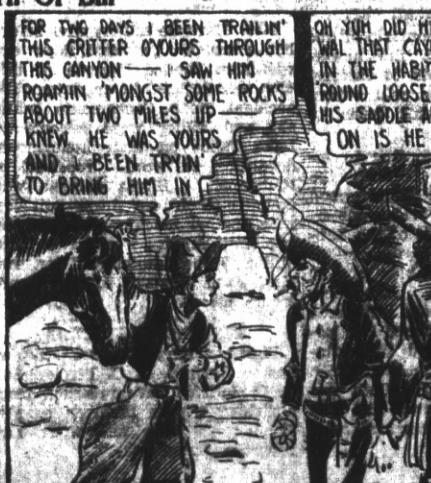

W.P.

So Maruca and Tono looked. They hunted and hunted. And they really found some gold nuggets! "Gold! Gold! Maruca and Tono, you are very good!" That was what father said. He was pleased. "Now we shall buy more food. Maybe some day we shall buy a new plow—one made in the United States to the north of us. What a help that would be!" Before the family went home it saw automobiles, street-cars and a big church—all in the city of Cuyaba!

Bajo Is Memento of African Past of Slaves

EDDIE PEABODY

Instrument Was Loaded With Clipper Load of Natives

"The original strings were of vegetable fiber strung over a gourd. Not being able to get the gourd here, the Negroes used stretched animal skin and mounted it over an old box. As they were shipped South they took their instruments with them and slowly improved the workmanship."

"Since the banjo has become a part of every dance orchestra, it has made tremendous strides. In fact, it is now louder tuned like a guitar but like a violin."

"I expect some of the banjo makers of the future will be as famous in the next generation, as are now the violin makers of Cremona."

"The banjo is really Arabic," explains Mr. Peabody. "It was bartered in trade by the Arabs of North Africa with the natives of the West African coast, and they called it a banja."

Was the Zaze

"From there it was carried to the East African coast of Mombasa where it became the zaze. The present generation of negroes in Senegambia and Mombasa each claims the origin of this native instrument. At any rate, it was brought to our shores first by the Mombasan natives and several shiploads later by Senegambians."

"Well, since the Olympic games we may not have as many championships as we once did, but we still possess Gene Tunney and Babe Ruth."

GIRL CAUSES YOUTH TO DROP LIFE OF CRIME

Publicity For War Material Before League

GENEVA, Sept. 13.—UP—A special commission of the League of Nations under the presidency of Count Bernstorff, former German ambassador at Washington, met here today for the purpose of drafting an international convention for the control and fullest publicity on the private manufacture of war material.

The commission hopes to complete the draft in time to submit to the league council which convenes on August 30, and in turn to the annual League assembly which begins a month's session on September 3. In case agreement can be reached on the draft project, the assembly plans to convene an international conference during 1929 for the formal launching and signing of the convention. It will constitute one of the most important points in the league's general disarmament program.

It was by no means certain, however, when the commission convened today that full agreement could be reached owing largely to the position that has been taken by the United States.

The latter insists that the control should extend not only to war material manufactured by private enterprises but to that manufactured by governments as well and that the fullest publicity should be given equally to both.

Unless this is done, the United States insists virtually nothing would be gained by such a convention and has accordingly made participation dependent upon government production being included as well.

The American thesis is bitterly opposed by most of the European and Asiatic powers where the production of war material is largely a government monopoly.

Trumpet Soloist At Local Church

Grace Adams East, noted trumpet soloist and radio artist will play at the First Baptist church next Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. Miss East is becoming noted in her work with the trumpet and is in great demand. On a recent tour in Southern California she played in Angelus Temple and played at Dr. Shape's services at Temple Baptist church in Los Angeles. She is a real artist and her playing Sunday will not only be novel in its type, but will be a real treat for music lovers. The pastor, Rev. Weldon M. Wilson will preach on the subject, "Women Barbers."

Folks are at home so little in this era of motor cars that the work of bill collectors has been made more difficult.—The Des Moines Tribune Capital.

School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said:

"One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system working well at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping."

John Britt and Tony De Mayo, employees of Kerper.

Kerper's establishment, in the Washington Square district was raided by Federal officers on July 20. A large quantity of liquor and a long list of names, many of them prominent, was seized. This list was made public.

The indictments were returned after the Grand Jury had questioned a number of socially prominent Philadelphians regarding Kerper's business activities here and at Bar Harbor, Me., a Philadelphian summer colony.

The indictment alleged he shipped a quantity of champagne to Mrs. B. B. C. Catnerwood, wife of a prominent banker, at her Bar Harbor summer home, July 7.
This was followed by a shipment of Bacardi rum, the indictment said. Both shipments were labeled "olive oil."

Another shipment listed was whiskey to Otto Leroy, of New York, which was labeled "paint."

Reptile Farm Is Prosperous For 4 Youths

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 13.—(UP)
Four youths, none more than 18 years old, comprise the members of an unusual business partnership. The Louisiana Snake Farm and their well-filled cages located in the back yard of the firm members, prove the success of the material is not as solid.

The boys catch the snakes—mostly water and cotton-mouth moccasins—in the Louisiana swamps by the use of crooked sticks, and bring them out to their "farm" in bags. Some rattlers and many non-poisonous species also have been captured by the youthful adventurers.

Poison is extracted from the fangs of the reptiles once a week and this is sold at $10 an ounce for the treatment of snake bites.
It requires but a day for the reptile to acquire a new supply of the venom.

Many narrow escapes have been made by members of the snake-hunting party on their weekly jaunts to the Louisiana swamps.
The most recent was a few weeks ago when the party was attacked by a five-foot alligator which they finally subdued and tied with a rope.

The partners are Jules Richard 17; Ralph Richard, 14; Fred Huber 18, and Adolphe Duvalle, 17.

PORTO RICO IS HIT BY STORM

HAVANA CUBA, Sept. 13.—(UP)
The West Indian hurricane is now raging over Porto Rico, according to an announcement made this evening by the national observatory.

"Observations received from Ponce, Porto Rico, late this afternoon, indicate that the storm is central over Porto Rico. We have not been able to obtain confirmation of this data." The observatory made the announcement this evening.

No other observation has been received during the late hours of the day.

Girl Of Today Finds Clothing Costs Advance

LONDON, Sept. 13.—(UP)
The Ministry of Labor says the modern girl pays 120 percent more for her clothes than the girl of 1914.

The big clothing stores of London say she does not.

And so the battle is on.

An official of a west end store said recently that the principal difference between pre-war clothes and post-war clothes is quality, rather than price.

"Whereas a woman in 1914 might buy an outfit for $100 which would last her several years, and then be passed on to a relative, or cut down for children, a woman nowadays will buy one for the same cost, or less, but it will not last her so long because the materials are not as solid."

Gloves, stockings, handkerchiefs and the dainty under-clothing that takes the place of the solid wool variety, all actually cost less, it was stated than in pre-war times.

The Ministry of Labor and the big stores agree, however, that mere man is groaning under an increased clothing burden but the stores think that 120 percent is a little too high.

CEDARVILLE PASTOR, WIFE, GUESTS HERE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—(UP)
The business situation in the United States is "very satisfactory," Secretary of the Treasury Mellon reported to President Coolidge today.

Mellon said he told Coolidge that the general outlook is encouraging.

"It is not true that a com-paign year is bad for business," he said. "The country as a whole is prosperous, but there are still slack industries such as coal and textile. There is nothing unfavorable on the agricultural horizon and 1928 should be a good year for the farmers."

SMITH TACTICS ARE ASSAILED BY SEN. SMOOT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—(UP)
Governor Smith should avoid "Clothesline controversies" if he expects to convince the country he is presidential material, Senator Reed Smoot, one of the leading figures in the Republican party organization of the Senate, said in a statement today.

Smoot's statement was evoked by Governor Smith's attempt to defend himself against charges of drunkenness.

If Governor Smith desires to convince the country of his capacity for the presidency he would do well to avoid clothesline controversies with the ladies of his neighborhood, Smoot said. Despite his frantic effort to make what Mrs. Jones says to Mrs. Brown appear as an organized whispering campaign against him the voters will continue to watch him on his determination to revive the liquor business.

"Governor, the way to immortality is not via 'what Mrs. Jones says to Mrs. Brown.'

OILERS CLASH WITH OAKLAND IN TILT HERE

Coach Ivan Hill's Oilers will receive their second gridiron test this afternoon on the local field when they engage McClymonds high of Oakland.

Last year the Acorn squad copped a 7 to 6 victory over the Richmond team, and a reversal of the score will prove very satisfactory to Hill's cohorts.

There is plenty of doubt attached to this achievement, however, and the Red and Blue will take the field on the short end of the betting. It is conceded that the 1928 lineup does not compare favorably with last year's squad, although it is too early in the season to get a definite line on the local eleven.

McClymonds also appears to have a weaker team than last season, losing a 27 to 0 game at the hands of St. Mary's prep this season.

Hill has jugged his lineup to place Carson at tackle, Dunleavy at guard and Dalton at end. The latter gives every promise of developing into a star player, having already shown a decided instinct toward the sensational.

Faults which stood out during Richmond's first game this season with Oakland Tech, have been polished off so far as possible under the coaching of Hill, and those who attend the contest to-night will likely see a stronger Richmond team in action.

JONES FAILS TO GET THRILL OUT OF WIN AT GOLF

BY UNITED PRESS
Golf triumphs no longer are an event in the life of Robert T. Jones, Jr.—it's a habit with the young golfing lawyer of Atlanta, Ga.

Jones, most recent triumph was at Wheaton, Ill., where he defeated T. P. Perkins, British amateur title-holder 12 up and 12 to play in the Walker Cup matches between the United States and Great Britain. As captain of the United States team, Jones scored the most overwhelming victory over the British amateur ever gained in a Walker Cup competition. The previous record was 12 up and 11, by which Jones defeated Cyril Tolley of St. Andrews in 1926.

Paired with "Chick" Evans, Jones further aided the cause of the American team, by winning over Hazlet and Hope 5 to 3. The American team was victorious in eleven of twelve matches, another record in Walker Cup play.

Probably the most remarkable score ever turned in for any series of play was made by "The Atlanta Wizard" in the practice round prior to the Walker Cup matches.

Jones' score of 203 for 54 holes on a par 71 course may be termed a new golfing standard. His first record breaking round was scored in the morning with a 68. He then proceeded to better that mark with a 67, and came back in the afternoon to turn in a card of 68. His average was 67-2-3 strokes for three rounds on a par 71 course.

When Jones won his third national amateur title last year at Minikahda he played 154 holes in ten under par figures.

The match between Bobbie Jones and Johnny Farrell for the national open championship of 1928 has been referred to as the greatest golf duel held over American turf. There has never been another golf competition where the drama held its place so long and the tide of battle swung back and forth with such startling rapidity. Jones reached the last two holes trailing by a stroke and against these odds, finished with two birdies. On the final hole Johnny Farrell stepped up to a seven-foot putt and sent the ball spinning from the view of the crowd.

In the thirty-six hole play-off Farrell finished with a 143 as against 144 for Jones, a difference of one stroke in 108 holes of golf.

Jones first won the amateur crown over the Merion Cricket Club course in 1924. George Von Elm was his opponent on this occasion. The next year Jones repeated as amateur champion by winning over his fellow townsman, Watts Gunn at the Oakmont Country Club. In 1925 Jones was beaten in the finals by George Von Elm. Undaunted Jones came back and last year won his third title in four years, by defeating Evans.

The triumphs of the Atlanta star in the National Open have been almost as impressive. He won the title in 1923 after a play-off with Bobby Crickshank. In 1924 Jones was runner-up, and finished second to Cyril Walker. Again in 1925 Jones was runner-up after a 36 holes play-off with Willie McFarlane. Jones won the title in 1926 and this year was defeated in the play-off by Farrell.

Senators Take Third From Stars

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13—UP Lefty Welsh, Sacramento hurler, let Hollywood down with three hits and by virtue of a 13 to 3 victory, the Solons end with the State for first place in the Pacific Coast League chase.

The Solons held a field day at bat. Three Star hurlers took to the mound and met equally bad success as the winners crashed out 19 blows. It was the Senators, third straight, win over Hollywood.

San Francisco, third place club, threatened the leaders by beating Portland, 7 to 3.

The Missions, struggling with Oakland in a fourth place tie stepped ahead by winning, 11 to 6.

Los Angeles and Seattle split a double-header. The home club won the first, 9 to 4 and the Angels won a 1 to 0 pitchers duel.

Bill: "I dropped my watch in the river once and it's been running ever since."

Charley: "What's the same with?"

Bill: "No, the river."

Jones To Pilot Oakland Outfit

After a fairly successful season, the Richmond Sannies have disbanded according to Manager Phil Jones, who declared that he will manage the Johnson Clothiers of Oakland for the remainder of the season.

The first contest for the Clothiers under Jones' tutelage will be played here Sunday on the First street grounds, with a number of former Sannies in the line-up.

Roland Roberts, playing with the Wichita Falls club of the Texas league, will don a Clothier uniform when the league season closes, Jones said.

DENNY, CULLEN SCRAP TONIGHT IN MAIN BOUT

Annie Denney and Freddie Cullen will battle in the main event tonight at Promotor Joe Rossi's scrapping nostril emporium in El Cerrito. From what is known of the ability of the two gladiators, local fans appear to be in for an evening of action. Both batters fight a slashing style and can throw punches from any angle at the slightest pretense. In a bout of this type, anybody might win, but Denney appears to be a good bet, possibly by a knockout.

In the special event, Joe Montes will meet Jose Ramos. The former has won over Battling Bulahin, Pedro Torres, Jimmy Britt and others.

De La Huerta is being mentioned for the presidency of Mexico, which indicates he still has some enemies. The Miami Daily News and Metropolis.

CORBETT WINS OVER BAKER IN NEW YORK BOUT

NEW YORK, Sept. 13—(UPI)—Young Corbett, Fresno, California welterweight, made his eastern debut tonight by winning an unimpressive decision over Sergeant Sammy Baker. Corbett, conqueror of Jack Thompson, knocked Baker down for a count of nine with a right to the body in the seventh but slowed up in the next few rounds.

A crowd of 10,000 saw the fight and booted Corbett and cheered Baker as the fighters left the ring. Baker recovered quickly from the knockdown and carried the battle to Corbett in the next four rounds. He had the Californian in a bad way several times.

Corbett's wrestling tactics failed to make an impression. The blow which dropped Baker was a short right that traveled less than six inches.

2 PERILED AS PLANE CRASHES NEAR MARTINEZ

MARTINEZ, Sept. 13.—Allen H. Rhodes, commercial airplane pilot of Berkeley, and a passenger, whose identity Rhodes said he "didn't know" were badly shaken up but escaped serious injury at 12 o'clock this morning when his Eaglerock plane nose dived into the soft sand of the reclaimed McNear Tract, west of the California Transportation company's dock, as he attempted to make a landing.

The passenger left the scene immediately and could not be located. Rhodes declared that his passenger was enroute to the Western Plywood Products company plant on business, but he said he did not know his name. At the plywood plant it was stated that no one connected with the plant had been in the ship.

Rhodes' plane, in taxying to a stop, struck soft dirt and the nose swept into the earth, tilting and holding the ship at a 45 degree angle. The propeller was smashed by the force of impact or other injuries to the ship.

The pilot and his passenger left the Alameda airport a half hour before they landed here. The ship was the first to land on the local waterfront. Rhodes said he was here yesterday and looked over the tract and was satisfied he could make a safe landing. In taxying to a stop he got his plane too close to the bay, where the ground is damp.

A second plane came here from the Alameda airport this afternoon with a propeller for Rhodes' ship. The pilot said he would take off from the waterfront as soon as repairs had been made.

He pays attention to opens a permanent exhibition of a sweet Connecticut girl and has former fashions in women's dress. Dresses of the Empire period are of the time-honored and much slender and small. Women did not exercise, participated in no sports. In the 1830s big sleeves and gathered skirts were the vogue. In the 1840s and 1850s tight bodices and sloping shoulders. The exhibition reveals bustles and puff sleeves and draperies with pleats and gathers and cascade effects. An exhibition of 1928 styles will reveal simplicity and sanity. The women of today are active, enterprising and physically and mentally far advanced over the women of a century ago.

P. O. Employees At S. F. Meeting

Richmond postoffice clerks and carriers together with several from Martinez and Concord attended a joint meeting of all postal workers in San Francisco last night when Congressman Clyde M. Kelly of Pennsylvania, the "father of post-office legislation," addressed the gathering.

Among those from Richmond attending were Miss Viola Treanor, Miss Gertrude Sherman, Miss Marie Weston, Bruce Hunt, D. J. Shaw, A. Fowler, E. Zeller, and C. E. Seeger of the main office and Miss Lucy Kellum of the Point Richmond branch.

stunts, when Yankee Doodle Art Goebel's plane, appeared from the southeast.

A mighty cheer went up as the pilot and Jack Turner, owner of the ship, stepped out onto the deck.

They were escorted to the microphone and posed for pictures with Eric Nelson, Lee Arnold, Henry Ogden and Jack Harding, round the world flyers.

Then the racers were escorted to an automobile and left the field.

A newspaperman later asked Dudley Steel, chairman of the contest committee, if Goebel actually had made a non-stop flight and the official admitted that the Yankee Doodle had landed in Arizona.

Goebel later appeared before the newspapermen and told a story of encountering "terrible" weather Wednesday and Wednesday night, with steady headwinds which used up his gasoline supply.

A short time after the plane landed, Los Angeles newspapers were at the field, hailing Goebel as winner of the race.

BANDIT MAKES INSANITY PLEA

(Continued from Page 1) the Preston Industrial school at Lone, where at the age of 16, he attacked a matron, he said, and was sent to Stockton. He escaped but was caught soon after. Two months later he was released and again went to Santa Rosa.

The probation officer of Sonoma county obtained jobs for him, but his penchant for stealing remained with him. He ran away, stole an automobile and drove to Los Angeles to visit a relative.

Arrested for the automobile theft, the lad was jailed in Los Angeles and returned again to Santa Rosa.

He ran away again and was sent back to Preston a second time. After having trouble with the authorities at the Lone reformatory several times, he was released on probation, he said when 21 years of age, going to San Francisco. He later went to Richmond, where he was arrested for the burglarization of the W. J. Zimmerman home.

This was the lad's story as related to the jury in the hope that the jurors would consider him sufficiently demented at the time of the burglary to hold that he should not be held responsible for his crime.

Trial Is Halted As Attorney Is Sent To Prison

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 13.—(UPI)—Trial of Russell St. Clair Beitzel, Philadelphia engineer, accused of the murder of Barbara Mauger, came to an abrupt halt late today when his attorney was sentenced to three days in jail for contempt of court.

Beitzel at the same time rose dramatically and discharged the attorney, Vernon Hamilton, from handling the case.

Joseph L. Fainer later was named to represent the defendant and the trial was ordered to be resumed Monday morning.

Hamilton was held in contempt of court when he appeared late for the afternoon session. He explained he had been delayed in a newspaper office.

Pair Return From Finland

After spending an entire summer in the land of the Midnight Sun, William J. Long of 2514 Gaynor avenue and George H. Jameson of 1414 Barrett avenue have returned to Richmond. The two men paid a visit to Long's former home in Finland; it being Long's first visit in 23 years.

The sailed from New York directly to Helsinki. The greater portion of the four-month trip was spent in Finland, although they enjoyed an excursion trip from Cherbourg through the North Sea, Elbe river and Kiel canal into Germany. They visited some time in Danzig. The return trip was made from Helsinki to Hull, England, whence they sailed for New York, arriving in that port August 30 aboard the Mauretania. After a week in New York they returned to Richmond, arriving here Wednesday.

Goebel later appeared before the newspapermen and told a story of encountering "terrible" weather Wednesday and Wednesday night, with steady headwinds which used up his gasoline supply.
